

After Hours

First Community Bank-Naperville broke ground at its new location in Naperville. Pat Benton, left, market president FCBN; Doug Krause, Naperville city councilman;

Mayor A. George Pradel; Steve Chirico, Naperville city councilman; Scott Wehrli, member of the board of directors FCBN.

Chen Chinese Cuisine has been selected by the Crystal Lake Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors to receive the Pride in Crystal Lake Award. A Crystal Lake business for over 15 years, Chen recently undertook a total renovation of their business with a significant investment.

Online

We want to see what's going on at your chamber and business events.

Email your pictures for the next issue to afterhours@dailyherald.com.

You can view more pictures online using the QR code..

Real Urban BBQ owner Jeff Shapiro cuts the ribbon to celebrate the new restaurant's grand opening at 1260 S. Milwaukee Ave., Vernon Hills, along with Mike Allison, village of Vernon Hills; Alese Campbell, GLMV Chamber of Commerce, and other chamber and business leaders.

MARK WELSH/mwels@dailyherald.com

Doug Ray, Chairman/Publisher and CEO, retired Assistant Vice President of Marketing and Promotions Jim Cook, Kent Johnson, Senior Vice-President Treasurer, and Scott Stone, Executive Vice-President General Manager, all of Paddock Publications, at the 5th annual Links Technology Cup tournament at the Schaumburg Golf Club.

Park Ridge Chamber of Commerce President Theresa Olson, of Resurrection Heath Care, cut the red ribbon for the Dick Pond Athletics Store grand open-

