My Chef announces new owners

My Chef Catering owners Bill and Karen Garlough have sold their company to three employees: Dominick Scafidi, director of catering sales; executive chef Mark Walter; and accountant Megan Rousonelos.

Bill and Karen Garlough founded My Chef Catering 28 years ago in Naperville. All three new owners have been with the company for the past 10 to 20 years.

My Chef was named the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Small Business of 2007 and has been recognized by online wedding industry sites such as The Knot and Wedding Wire. The business also recently won Naperville Magazine's best caterers for 2016.

My Chef has been named the Western Suburban Philanthropic Society's corporation of the year, Hesed House's humanitarians of the year and Loaves & Fishes Lifetime Achievement Award winners.
